Scientists from AgVic Tatura.

Time: 10.15 am for a 10.30 start. Finish with lunch

Location: Daryl Hoey's paddock, Shinnicks Rd, Katunga.

Date: Tuesday 16 May.

Location: Greg Ault's farm, 390 Dingee Rd, Rochester

Date: Thursday 18 May.

Managing Wet Paddocks

After rain earlier this week many paddocks are now very wet and will be susceptible to pugging damage if grazed. Remember the grazing rules for ryegrass (between 2-3 leaves or canopy closure), if you decide to skip these paddocks that are at canopy closure now the pasture quality will decline but is this loss of quality more favourable in the long run versus badly pugged paddocks? Consider using on-off grazing if paddocks really have to be grazed or keep the cows completely off the grass until it dries a bit and feedlot them with hay and/or silage. Click here to see information from Ag Vic regarding on-off grazing. Click here for Dairy Australia's Managing Wet Soils fact sheet

Watch for increasing Bacto Counts

With recent rain it may be timely to revisit this information from a wet August last year. Below are the three clips that Durham Prewett, from Fonterra, outlines practical tips for farmers in the Murray Dairy Region.

Find Ag & Farming Apps Easily

There are a huge amount of farming and agricultural apps out there but they are often hard to find in the App Store or Google Play. Why? Because the search engine often returns hits for children's farming games, rather than agricultural tools! To assist in choosing an app suitable for you — and to ensure your device doesn't become overloaded with irrelevant apps — the Central Station website has collated those relevant to you. Click here to check it out.
